DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RONALD J. HOLMES,

Defendant.

SEALED

Case No. 2:13-CR-192

CRIMINAL INDICTMENT

Conspiracy, 18 U.S.C. § 1349
Bank Fraud, 18 U.S.C. § 1344

COUNT ONE
Conspiracy to Commit Mail Fraud,
Wire Fraud, and Bank Fraud

1. From in or about 2006, to in or about 2009, in the State and Federal District of Nevada and elsewhere,

RONALD J. HOLMES,

defendant herein, did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, and agree with others known and unknown to the grand jury to commit mail fraud, wire fraud and bank fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341, 1343 and 1344, respectively.

1 The Objective of the Conspiracy

2 2. The objectives of the conspiracy was for the defendant and his coconspirators to 3 obtain mortgage loans by fraudulent means to buy houses, to use some of the loan proceeds for 4 themselves, in some instances to live in the houses, and in one instance file bankruptcy
5 petitions to forestall foreclosure on one house so the defendant could continue to live in it.

6 Manner and Means

7 3. The defendant and his coconspirators accomplished the objectives of the 8 conspiracy by devising and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and for 9 obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and 10 promises.

11 4. It was part of the scheme that the defendant and his coconspirators in some 12 instances recruited people to be straw buyers and in other instances created straw buyers by 13 using someone else's identity. A straw buyer is a person in whose name coconspirators buy a 14 house and submit a fraudulent loan application to a lender to obtain a mortgage for the 15 purchase of the house.

16 5. It was further part of the scheme that the defendant and his coconspirators made
17 and caused to be made materially false and fraudulent statements in the straw buyers' loan
18 applications and related documents regarding the straw buyers' employment, income, assets,
19 intent to occupy the property, roles as buyers, and other facts, and submitted and caused to be 20 submitted the applications and supporting documents to lenders.

21 6. Some of the false statements that the defendant made and caused to be made in 22 furtherance of the scheme include the following: (1) genuine people were the buying houses
23 when the defendant then and there well knew that the buyers were straw buyers; (2) a straw
24 buyer signed loan documents when the defendant signed the documents in the straw buyer's 25 name so the defendant could live in one of the houses; and (3) straw buyers worked for the 26

1 defendant's company when the defendant then and there well knew they did not work for his 2 company.

3 7. It was further part of the scheme that the defendant caused lenders to make loans
4 to the straw buyers based on the materially false and fraudulent statements.

5 8. It was further part of the scheme that the defendant and his coconspirators
6 caused escrows for the transactions to close and loan proceeds to be disbursed to 7 coconspirators.

8 9. It was further part of the scheme that the defendant lived in two of the houses
9 until lenders foreclosed on the houses because the defendant made few, if any, mortgage 10 payments.

11 10. It was further part of the scheme that in or about 2007 and 2008, the defendant 12 filed and caused to be filed bankruptcy petitions in the name of the straw buyer so the 13 defendant could continue to live in the house.

14 11. In execution of the scheme, the defendant caused items to be mailed and sent by 15 means of interstate wire communications. The wire communications include emails, 16 facsimiles, and wire transfers of money.

17 12. Some of the lenders were federally insured.
